

The Fraserside Summer Camping Bureau has been operating since 1989. Over the years this program has enabled thousands of children to enjoy the thrill of the ‘great outdoors’ while learning new skills and making new friends. Fraserside’s Summer Camping Bureau and its supporters would like to ensure that financial constraints do not prevent a child from experiencing those pleasures.

Any low income family living in New Westminster is eligible to access Fraserside’s Summer Camping Bureau.

Some of the overnight camps participating in this program are:

- Camp Sasamat
- Camp Potlatch
- Camp Sunrise
- Evans Lake
- Camp Alexandra
- Camp Artaban
- Camp Jubilee
- Parks and Rec summer camps
- YMCA Camps...to name a few!

Definition of low income in New Westminster with respect to receiving subsidies from Fraserside
Persons in Household	Maximum Annual Income
1	$17,407
2	$21,669
3	$26,639
4	$32,345
5	$36,685
6	$41,375
7 or more	$46,065

There are also many day camps program available.

Other Fraserside programs include:

- Housing Support
- Employment Resource Centre
- Addictions Counselling
- Children Who witness Abuse Counselling
- Emergency Shelters
- Mental Health Programs
- Community Living Programs

Fraserside’s Living Well Department assists low income families in New Westminster with Fund, Food and Families activities with programs such as:

- Parks and Recreation subsidies
- Kidsport BC – team registration subsidies
- Biggest Little Garden in Town
- Cooking Clubs
- Adopt a Family at Christmas
- ESL Conversation Circles
- Tax Return Assistance
- Public Access Computer

For more information on those or any of the other services Fraserside offers, please visit www.fraserside.bc.ca or call 604-522-3722 (101)